The attention of friends of this most appealing charity is called to the above report. Through the generous co-operation of the Worcester Children's Friend Society and of Miss Helen A. Woods the Fresh Air Fund has, during the last season, been able to extend its benefits to almost twice as many deserving women and children as in any previous season, with an increased expenditure of less than Fifty Dollars for the season's work. It is hoped by the Board of Managers that when the appeal for funds to carry on the work is made in June the generous support of the public will be continued to this most worthy object.

OBJECT AND METHOD

The object, briefly stated, is to care for needy children. The work can be summed up under two heads: the Bureau of Information and Counsel, and the Placing-out Department.

The Bureau of Information and Counsel receives all applications made to it, thoroughly investigates the situation and seeks to remove the cause of distress. It may give advice or refer the difficulty to some other society or to the Placing-out Department; and supervises the child in its own home or obtains work for the mother with her child.

The Placing-out Department removes the child, if conditions are such as to render this advisable, and places it in some foster-home, preferably in the country, where the expense of its board is either met by the parents and relatives when possible, as well as the Society, or else the child earns its own board in whole or in part, or receives wages. A careful supervision is kept and an effort is made to re-establish the home as soon as possible.

Careful records are kept of every application, and the children are supervised for a longer or shorter time after they return to their homes.

The responsibility is brought back upon the parents and relatives as much as possible. Adoption is only sought when the home cannot be re-established.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

THE constant increase in the number of dependent children, brought to our attention, has made it necessary for the Board to consider more seriously than ever, means for meeting increased expenditures. In the spring a circular was sent out by the Ways and Means committee with the purpose of interesting people, who were not already familiar with the work of the Society. Another was sent out in the fall with encouraging results.

The Society has undertaken a new responsibility in the management of the Fresh Air Fund. Last summer Miss Woods and her assistants in the office sent a hundred and forty-two children and twenty-four mothers to the country. A number of convalescents from the hospitals were also taken into the country for the summer.

A pleasant incident of our regular work was a meeting last June, at the Woman's Club House, between some of the foster-mothers and the directors. Over a friendly cup of tea a more sympathetic relationship was established between the two groups, both of whom are so necessary to the welfare of our children. One could well judge of the character of the homes by the intelligent women who represented them. To watch their motherly faces when speaking of their little charges one felt that "The mother who takes into her heart her own children, may be a very ordinary woman, but she who takes into her heart the children of others, is one of God's mothers."

Last year two valuable members of the Board, Mrs. George A. Barnard and Mrs. George H. Miller, resigned. Mrs. Barnard who was for nineteen years director and for twenty-three years president of the society has from her intimate knowledge of the children brought them very closely into her own life, and has shown a rare devotion to their best interests.

Her service has been rendered with simple dignity and true sincerity. She has been so long identified with the history of the Society, it is difficult to express our appreciation of her long and faithful service. Mrs. Miller served as director for twenty-three years and as treasurer for eleven years. The intricate labor of the latter office can only be understood by one who has kept similar accounts

Mrs. Miller's loyalty and her conscientious attention to detail secures for her the deep gratitude of the Society.

The Employment Society continues to be of the greatest assistance to us in sewing for the children.

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian Church in Northboro has made twelve dresses for our children, and the Sunday Schools of St. Mark's and the Church of the Unity have contributed many Christmas gifts. We are indebted as always to the Physicians and Dentists who have freely given their services. The following persons have made bequests to the Society during the past year:

Mrs. Mary A. Richardson, $1,000; Mrs. Henry C. Graton, an estate at West Boylston.

These generous gifts show more clearly than words the confidence of the people in our work.

Respectfully submitted,

ABIGAIL BLAKE BARTON,
Secretary.

REPORT OF GENERAL SECRETARY

BUREAU OF INFORMATION

Investigation The work from year to year appears about the same, yet to us, who are most interested, each application presents a new difficulty and must be solved in its own individual way. A father perplexed by the short-comings of his son comes to us for advice. A widow asks our help in finding work, that she may keep her little family with her.

Court Work During the past year we have done more court work. Not only have we investigated many of the girl cases in the Juvenile Court but some have been placed on probation in our care. A misunderstanding often arises between the parents and a child and a third person is necessary to bring about the proper relations and maintain them by supervision.

School Problems The Truant Officers have also given us more work. A boy about to be committed to the Truant School was placed by us on a farm, where he has made good so far. A girl expelled from school because of her habit of taking things has been most carefully supervised in her own home, with fair results. An occasional visit to the country has kept the child's mind in a more healthful condition.

Guardianship In several instances we have been made guardians of the children that they may be better protected. A difficult girl was taken from an immoral home by the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children and, after guardianship was obtained, was placed in our care. At first she required much judicious supervision but we are now pleased with the results.

PLACING-OUT DEPARTMENT

Results

It is now time for us to see the results of placing the children in family homes. At the present time we have three in High School, one training to be a nurse, another a stenographer, a few in offices, one married, and several working at good trades, each having a bank account. A number are now earning wages in the same homes in which board was formerly paid for them. A young mother has been placed in a family with her child where she not only works but is attending evening High School.

Numbers We have had an average of sixty-three children during the past year, for whom we have paid board. As the cost of living has increased we have paid twenty-five cents more per week for board. At the close of the year we have four more wage homes than at the beginning and four more clothing homes, where we furnish only the clothing.

Emergencies There have been more emergency cases than in previous years. It was necessary for a mother to go to the hospital for three or four weeks, so we placed the seven children in a country home, while she is away, the father paying what he can toward their board.

Responsibility The parents and relatives have again this year nobly shouldered their responsibility of paying nearly half of the entire board of the children. An effort is made to place the children where they can easily be visited by their relatives, thus fostering the sense of parental responsibility.

Medical Supervision We have had less medical but more dental work this year. Most of the fatality has been due to the exceedingly frail condition of the infants when they were brought to us.

Home Investigations We have investigated more home applications where children were desired. At all times we have a waiting list of about one hundred homes available for use. These homes were especially valuable in the Fresh-air Work, which we undertook for the first time this summer.

Records Careful records are kept for further use but considered confidential. We keep in touch with the boy who went to Washington State with his foster-parents with whom he used to board. It is our effort to hear at least once a year from all who have been in our care.

Appeal

It is our privilege to be a friend to the children of Worcester who need us and we trust the generous public will keep pace with the increased demands made upon us.

Respectfully submitted,

HELEN A. WOODS,

General Secretary,
